

INSTRUCTIONS

- All games will be played at Wisconsin Lutheran College in the Recreation Complex (REX).
- Due to NCAA certification requirements, every girl participant MUST attend an educational session about the NCAA requirements BEFORE playing the first game in the league. (We know some of you have attended these sessions at other camps, but NCAA requires us to have you attend again!)
- The educational session will be offered on Sept. 19 at 1 p.m. These sessions will be held in the Siebert Room in the lower level of the REX.
- Jerseys will be distributed to girls AFTER the session.*
- Failure of girl players to attend these NCAA educational sessions could jeopardize our NCAA certification and the ability of college coaches to watch FCHEBL attendees.
- If there is a particular college (of any division) that is interested in you, please give them a call and give them your FCHEBL schedule. Many players have been recruited from FCHEBL in the past. 😊
- Refer coaches to our website www.fcchebl.org The 2004 FCHEBL schedule will be added in the next few days.
- Division I coaches may attend on September 19, 26 and October 10th.
- To verify NCAA certification, go to www.ncaa.org. Click on Enforcement and Reinstatement, then on Basketball Certification, then to Women's Fall Events or Women's Academic Year Events. Scroll to Sept 19, etc.
- For those of you playing 2 games, some may have a 1-3 hour break between games. Mayfair shopping center is near. 😊
- Concessions will be sold at the Rex Complex.

New this year (as a result of suggestions given by parents and coaches):

- We have attempted "block scheduling" to reduce long waits between games. However, this will result in some players playing games back-to-back. Get a good night's sleep!
- All players will play a minimum of 3 games in the tournament. (Schedule pending)

*Exception. Girls scheduled to play at noon (Team # 7 and Team # 8 only) will receive game jerseys BEFORE their game and must attend the educational session at 1 p.m. AFTER their game.
